General Rules:

Camp / Please take note of the following rules:

Alem Boerdery cannot accept any responsibility for any damages, accidents, loss of life and property during your stay.

1. The person that made the reservation is responsible for making sure that all fees are paid in full.
2. Please report any damage to equipment/ kitchen utensils/ linen etc.
3. Hot water is provided by using a "Donkey". Staff will make a small fire in the "Donkey" which is sufficient. Please do not add any wood or make the fire bigger as it will burst the water pipes. No children are allowed to add wood at any time.
4. Use water sparingly. All water is pumped directly from the Mokolo River. Do not drink tap water or do so at your own risk.
5. Thanks for not littering. Place all rubbish in bins provided. Do not burn any rubbish in the campfire.
6. Mattresses and blankets, etc. are not permitted round the fire.
7. Only one load of firewood will be provided per stay.

Hunting Rules:

1. No hunting of any unlisted animals or gamebirds. Only pre-arranged animals may be hunted.
2. Keep weapons safe at all times.
3. Any wounded animals will be paid in full.
4. No hunting from vehicles is permitted and no hunting is allowed within 150 m from any of the four waterholes.
5. Hunting is only permitted in daylight. All carcasses should be delivered at the cold-room for skinning before 18h00 every day.
6. The use of alcohol and smoking are prohibited during hunting in the veld.
7. Please refrain from littering while hunting.
8. Please do not remove or damage any plants or equipment or collect firewood from the veld.
9. Damage to any part of the infrastructure in the hunting areas will be levied from the responsible hunter. Please ensure that you familiarise yourself with the location of the watering point infrastructure.
